New Series of the Congressional Globe and Appendix. TO BE STEREOTYPED.

The undersigned originated the mode of journalizing the proceedings of Congress, which presented them entire. Their publication was the first and only one that gave each successive step in every measure in both branches of Congress; a brief of all the debates; every important vote; and an append x, including at full length all the revised speeches delivered during the session. The work thus conducted by them is a most periect political history. The Senators from the States and the Representatives from every section of the Union bring with them into Congress a knowledge of the feelings, sentiments, and interests of their several constituencies. Public opinion and the public information, as it exists among those they represent, are embodied by them; and in the crucible of Congress the wisdom of our times is brought to its test, and is there concentrated, in directing the political movements of the whole country. The impulses thus given through Congress from every quarter react upon the nation as a whole, and all its component parts made to move in co-operation. The press cannot be more usefully The Merchants and others of this city Indianapolis and adjacent employed than in condensing and again spreading abroad the places, can now, by application to us, avail themselves of the most intelligence of our free country, tending to such happy results through our almost miraculously adjusted State and
